

I am 100% opposed to the elimination of the Morse testing requirement for access to the HF Amateur frequencies. Morse code is an essential part of Amateur Radio. It is also the very simplest mode of operation. With very basic equipment, Morse code can be sent and received in any part of the world.